

Alex Salinas Rodriguez

September 17, 1951 - October 26, 2017

Alex Salinas Rodriguez, 66, of Brady, passed away on Thursday, October 26, 2017 in San Angelo. Visitation will be held at Heritage Funeral Home in Brady on Sunday, October 29, 2017 from 6:00pm to 7:00pm with the rosary to follow in the chapel from 7:00pm to 8:00pm. Funeral services will be at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church on Monday, October 30, 2017 starting at 10:00am with Father Bhaskar Mendem officiating.

Alex Rodriguez was born in Mason, Texas to his parents, Higinio Rodriguez and Agripina (Salinas) Rodriguez, on September 17, 1951. He enjoyed fishing, western movies, and listening to Elvis Presley. On June 5, 1971 he married the love of his life, Mary Lou Gloria, in Brady, Texas. Alex worked for a sandplant for 24 and a half years and was the hardest working man his children knew and loved. He also cherished the times he got to spend with his family and his grandchildren, whom knew him as Grandpa.

Alex is survived by his wife, Mary Lou Rodriguez of Brady; two daughters, Christina Ainsworth of Brady, and Cynthia Estes of Georgetown; three brothers, Gene Rodriguez and wife, Mary Alice, of Brady, Henry Rodriguez of Oklahoma, and Roy Rodriguez and wife, Lupe, of San Angelo; two sisters, Anita Goodman of London, Tx, and Flora Burleson of Mason. Also surviving Alex include his five grandchildren, Amber, Angelica, Sable, Jason, and Devin; and two great-grandchildren, Avery and Albus.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Higinio Rodriguez and Agripina (Salinas) Rodriguez; and one brother, David Rodriguez.
