

Angie Inez Walston

December 7, 1921 - March 9, 2013

Angie Keese Walston passed away on March 9, 2013 in Natalia, Texas. Angie was born on December 7, 1921 in Medina, Texas to Orley and Lizzie Keese.

Angie graduated from Menard High School in 1940, where she was an avid volleyball player. She was a wonderful seamstress and cook, an art she made sure her daughters were taught. Angie was a Tom Green 4-H leader for more than 12 years. She married Gordon Walston in August 1950 in Junction, Texas. They resided in Menard until the mid-fifties when they moved to San Angelo, Texas.

Angie was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Orley, Arthur, Morgan, and Ollie. She is survived by her husband Gordon, daughters Elizabeth Walston, Margaret Beardslee and husband Chuck, grandsons Eric Brackett and wife Agina, Scott Killingsworth and wife Mandy, step grandchildren Josh, Aaron and Monica, niece Neva Perdue, nephew Wade Keese and seven great grandchildren.
