“ My wife, Rebecca and I met Ms. Ann while she was at the Cedar Hill Healthcare Center in Lampasas. We would visit her about twice a month while taking her Holy Communion. During our visits, Ms. Ann was very attentive to her faith and participated eagerly to receive Communion, no matter how tired or sleepy she was, she never chose not to receive it. That within itself spoke volumes of the kind Catholic Christian she was. She lived a Godly life and prepared herself the best she could for the love and encounter with Christ. I believe her constant acceptance of Christ through Communion alerted God as to say, "Welcome home Ann, I've been waiting for you"

I leave you with this scripture in hopes that we can all reflect on what we need to believe to receive God's grace into his Heavenly Kingdom as Ms. Ann did and now lives eternally.

John 14: 1-3

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. 2 My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ. Amen
