

Anna Walker

April 29, 1932 - May 6, 2014

Anna Hardie (Lawlis) Walker entered God's kingdom on Tuesday, May 6, 2014. Ann was born April 29, 1932 in Clovis, NM to Edna Ainsworth Lawlis and James Lisbon Lawlis. In 1939, the family moved to Brady, TX, where she completed high school in three years and then her elementary education degree from TCU three years later. At age 20, she began teaching in Odessa at Sam Houston Elementary and retired from John Ireland Elementary 23 years later. In 1955, she married Jack Young Walker who preceded her in death in 2000.

Ann was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Texas Retired Teachers Association, and the Progressive Study Club. She also enjoyed her bridge clubs. She was a volunteer for Medical Center Hospital Auxiliary, Meals on Wheels, and a volunteer driver for the American Cancer Society.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law Mignon and Woody Mabry, and their son Will, of the Woodlands, TX, son Clayton and his daughter Ariana Walker.

If you desire to offer a memorial gift in memory of Ann, then please consider the Presbyterian Children's Home and Services, 4407 Bee Cave Road, Suite 520, Austin, TX., 78746.

“ *Mignon,
We are thinking of you and your family and praying God's strength and compassion covers you in this loss. Your mom was so blessed to have you as her wonderful daughter.
Much love,
Angie*
