He married the love of his life Maria Guadalupe Ibarra Aguirre "Honey Boo" on February 7, 1973, in San Angelo, Tx. At times you could find him playing along on his guitar to all his favorite songs and dancing with his wife and children.

Arturo was so proud of all his children, grandchildren and great - grandchildren. You could find him often out at the football field, baseball park, or soccer fields watching them play sports. He was also a beloved cousin, uncle, nephew, and friend to many. We are all going to miss his stubborn, silly, and loving ways. The impact he had on his family will be one we will all
