

Barry Clay Brandkamp

December 2, 1953 - February 26, 2024

Barry Clay Brandkamp, a kind-hearted and beloved man, passed away peacefully on February 26, 2024, at the age of 70 in Copperas Cove, Texas. Born on December 2, 1953, in the small town of Lampasas. Barry was the son of George W. Brandkamp Sr. and Pearlie M. Brandkamp, and had deep roots in the local community.

Barry was a skilled journeyman plumber for more than two decades and touched many lives with his craftsmanship and warm personality. He will always be remembered for his genuine and caring nature, leaving a lasting impact on all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Barry is now reunited in peace with his parents, George and Pearlie Brandkamp, his brother George Brandkamp, Jr., his first love Agnes Brandkamp, and his cherished wife, Susan Burns. He is survived by his son, Jermie Brandkamp, his loving sister Marla Brandkamp, and brothers Gary Chisholm and Dudley Chisholm. His legacy continues through his grandchildren, Tayler Locker, Tyler Locker, and Rachel Cowger, as well as his eight great-grandchildren.

A graveside service honoring Barry's memory will take place at Oak Hill Cemetery in Lampasas on March 7, 2024, at 2:00 pm. The funeral arrangements have been thoughtfully entrusted to the caring hands of Heritage Funeral Home in Lampasas.

As we gather to celebrate Barry's life and offer our final goodbyes, let us cherish the memories we shared with him and find comfort in the love he brought to all those around him. May his gentle soul rest in eternal peace.
