

Bryant Patton

April 13, 1921 - February 15, 2013

Bryant Patton, of San Saba, Texas, passed away Friday, February 15, 2013, in San Saba. Funeral services will be held Monday, February 18, 2013 at 10 AM at Heritage Funeral Home Chapel in San Saba with burial at China Creek Cemetery.

Bryant was born on April 13, 1921 in Goldthwaite, Texas and lived in San Saba his entire life. He retired from the County of San Saba after many years of dedicated service. He was a veteran serving in the Army infantry and as a military policeman during World War II and received an honorable discharge in 1945. He was an avid gardener and received much recognition during his life for his talent for growing extra large vegetables.

Bryant is survived by his wife, Valrea Patton of San Saba; daughters, Sarah Hyatt and husband Darl , Karen Richards and husband Randy, and Janice Werst and husband Mark, all of San Angelo; a son, Randall Patton and wife Rosie of Arkansas; numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Bryant was preceded in death by his wife, Florence Patton, daughter Geneva Sue Patton, his parents, Zack and Sudie Patton; his brothers, Preston Patton, Prentice Patton, Raymond (Boots) Patton, John Riley Patton, and Olen Dean Patton; his sisters, Gladys Lusty and Annie Shipman.

Tribute Wall

“ Great man

JC Jones - February 18, 2013 at 11:23 PM

“ Bryant was a very respected person. He will be missed by many. I can still see him with his many Military badges in the halls of our Church as well as out in public. My condolences go out to all who knew this considerate and remarkable man. He is now in a place where he can march with pride and have no pain.

Paula Jones - February 17, 2013 at 05:29 PM