“ Carlos always had a twinkling his eye, a smile, and a positive attitude. I had no idea he wasn't doing well. He's just one of those people who's supposed to live forever. He always preferred calling me Sissy instead of Barbara and that was OK with me because he was a special friend. I'll miss him.

“ Carlos was always cheerful and positive presence at Kohler. I had the highest respect for him as a person and co-worker. Not to mention he was the most devoted Cowboys fan i ever knew. Heaven just received another great person. Prayers for the family.
