“ I've known Chris my whole life. I played with him and Angle as kids and he always made me laugh. He had one of the kindest hearts I've ever known. He was a hard worker and never gave up. It feels like I saw him in town yesterday. He will always have a place in the hearts of everyone he ever met. I love you Chris. Rest In Peace. ❤️

“ Chris was so funny and outgoing. He always give us all something to laugh about. Sometimes he would fall a sleep in class and we would all start clapping and he woke up and started clapping with us. He has such a sweet smile and always full of laughter. You will be so missed chris. ❤️

“ No amount of words could express the emptiness this world will feel without you. No amount of words could express the emptiness my world will feel without you. I know you'll never read this, but I hope to one day be amongst the stars with you my guy. I've never had anyone to watch over me in the sky, but I hope you will. You were one in an infinity and I truly hope by some chance we meet again. I love you. Rest easy and save me a spot. ❤️

“ Chris was my student at Brady High School who I came to know through his love for books and reading. His senior year he was my library aide. He would often fall asleep reading a book. At times I would allow him to take that little nap because I knew he had a job working evenings until late night. Chris was very intelligent. He loved books so much that he would come to me to put in special book request and eagerly waited for them to come in. Chris had the best manners always saying yes ma'am, Miss, or Thank you! I am so sad to hear of his passing but find comfort knowing he now has an endless library with all the books he ever wanted to read in heaven.
