

Clarence Leon Grumbles

March 20, 1922 - April 3, 2013

Clarence Leon Grumbles, 91, of San Saba, passed away on April 3, 2013 at Scott and White Hospital. Funeral services are being held at 2:00 PM, Saturday, April 6, 2013, at Heritage Funeral Home Chapel in San Saba with burial at Harmony Ridge Cemetery in San Saba County.

Clarence was born on March 20, 1922, in San Saba, to Jesse Lee and Sarah Emma Grumbles . He was raised in and around San Saba but moved to the oil fields of Odessa. He moved back to San Saba from Odessa in 1992.

After his retirement in San Saba, he was happiest on a tractor. He loved to fish, dance, and tinker with things. There wasn't anything he couldn't fix.

Survivors of Clarence are his daughter: Betty Mosley and husband, Theron, of Channelview; his son: Clarence Leon Grumbles, Jr. and wife, Robyn, of Odessa; grandchildren: Pamela Straight and husband, Norman, of Houston, Tracy Mosley of Channelview; and Steven Grumbles; great-grandson: Brandon Kidd and wife, Cassie, of Hampton, Virginia; and numerous nieces and nephews. Also surviving Clarence is his special friend, Neva Ray Hector, and her family.

Preceding Clarence in death were his parents, Jesse and Sarah Emma Grumbles; his brothers: Albert, Ivin, and Edward Lee Grumbles; and granddaughter, Amy Grumbles.

Officiating the service is Rev. Drew Harrison. Pall bearers are: Emmit Lee Grumbles, Jan Huffsteler, John Pat Grumbles, Bryan Hector Marcus Hector, and Kevin Brown. Honorary Pallbearers are Cliff Dunnegan, Calvin Hector, Ray Hawkins, Tracy Mosley, and Jack Grumbles.