

Cleo Cordelia Ramsey

June 21, 1929 - November 14, 2012

Cleo Cordelia (Clevenger) Ramsey, 83, of Brady, Texas, passed away Wednesday, November 14, 2012, in Brady. Visitation will be from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Friday, November 16, 2012, at Heritage Funeral Home in Brady. Services will be held at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, November 17, 2012, at Sunset Ridge Church of Christ in Brady with burial at Voca Cemetery.

Cleo was born on June 21, 1929, in Voca, Texas to General Forrest Clevenger and Maggie Bell (Tomlinson) Clevenger. She married James Ramsey on May 18, 1946, in Whon, Texas. After a few moves, they eventually settled in Brady and raised their family. She was a member of the Sunset Ridge Church of Christ.

Cleo most enjoyed raising her children, sewing dresses for her granddaughters, teaching Sunday School, quilting, making jewelry, and fileting all the fish James and the boys caught. She was a very talented seamstress and quilted beautifully. Cleo's mother was a charter member of the Voca Quilting Club and Cleo was a longtime, faithful member, having joined after retiring from work.

Cleo was preceded in death by; her parents; one sister; and five brothers. Survivors include: husband, James Ramsey of Brady; one daughter; Delia Lamb, and husband Ron, of Wenatchee, Washington; two sons; David Ramsey, and wife Marianne, and Forrest Ramsey, and wife Georgia, all of Brady; seven grandchildren; Leslie Lamb; Wesley Lamb; Jon Ramsey; Jim Ramsey; Robert Ramsey; Heather Ramsey; and Kira Brown; 16 great-grandchildren; 3 great-great grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews.
