

Curtis Wayne Carey

August 9, 1962 - November 24, 2022

Curtis Wayne Carey, 60, passed away at his residence in Kempner, Texas on November 24, 2022. Curtis had lived in Kempner since January of 2019, moving there from California where he had grown up. He was born on August 9, 1962, in Fallbrook, California to parents Bruce Wayne and Brenda Bearden. During high school, Curtis enrolled in a work program where he was assigned a position at a printshop. He absolutely thrived in the industry and was very self-motivated to learn all that he could about the business. He became so proficient that he was often called on to do any repairs on the presses. He remained in the printing business for 35 years. While in the work program, where he met his future bride, Brenda Martin. They married on November 21, 1981, in Pollock Pines, California. Curtis was a very caring, sharing, loving, happy gentleman that doted on his children, grandchildren, and friends. He was always willing and able to help his neighbors at the campground where he and Brenda lived. He enjoyed off roading, camping, bonfires, Budweisers, and barbecue with friends and family as often as possible.

Curtis leaves behind to treasure his memory, his wife, Brenda Carey of Kempner, one son, Darrel Carey, and wife Meredith of Tennessee, one daughter, Danielle Jenkins, and husband Joshua of Killeen, his father of Arizona, three brothers, all of Arkansas, three precious grandchildren, Makayla, Matthew, and Maddox, and his fur grandbabies, Grace Carey of Tennessee, and Lucy, Belle, and Hiyori from Texas. He is also survived by several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and many loving friends.

Preceding Curtis in death are his grandparents who raised him, Dorothy and Vinton Carey and his mother.
