

Curtis Eugene Stewart

January 24, 2018

Curtis Eugene (Gene) Stewart, of Menard, passed away Wednesday January 24, 2018, at the age of 93.

He was born in Paint Rock, Texas to John Bertis and Josie Stewart on May 27, 1924. Gene served in the US Navy during WWII as Commando, he was in the Asiatic-Pacific area, and receiving his honorable discharge from US Naval Base in San Pedro, California in February 1946, Gene was the second oldest veteran in Menard, County. He married Dortha Faye Sorrell and they raised three children. He worked as a farmer, rancher, horse trader, and in general was a jack of all trades. He could fix anything, there wasn't much that Gene couldn't do. He loved listening to the old country music, was an avid dancer and enjoyed dancing with every lady at the dance. Gene was a very generous person and always helping someone in need. He will be dearly missed.

Gene is survived by his 2 children; son, Bertis Boyd Stewart and wife Joi of Cedar Creek, Texas, and Dayma Stewart Smith of Menard, grandchildren; Dayna Tyler (Richard), Curtis Smith (Elaine), Krista Ingram (Brandon) Jenny Hayes, and Nancy Anderson (Scott). He is also survived by 8 great grandchildren, and 1 sister Maxine Riddle, and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Gene is preceded in death by his parents, 1 daughter Eugenia Sue, son-in-law Larry Smith, his siblings; Geraldine Burns, Earline Davidson, and Bertistine Bruton.

Visitation will be held at Heritage Funeral Home Monday January 29, 2018 from 5-7 p.m.
