Cindi touched the hearts and minds of anyone and everyone who knew her. With piercing beautiful blue eyes, beauty that got every man's attention, a witty sense of humor and a mind as sharp as a whip, she was truly a special woman.

A loving wife, kind and gentle with a soft heart for everyone she knew.

Married 25 years, 27 years together, greatly missed and always remembered by husband Michael (Mick

Our love for each other overcame any difficulties or problems we had in our relationship.

To Husband Micky McPhee, a retired airline pilot, Cindi was his "girl in the sky."

All pilots love the girl in the sky, she has blue eyes a blue dress and lives in the clouds.

Cindi "my girl in the sky" was overcome and swept away to Heaven by the lord's unforgiving winds of cancer.

In Heaven she will be at peace, warm and happy, resting in paradise.

Cindi, I will never forget and cherish our time together.

Cindi, I miss you "my girl in the sky" I love you more than all the stars in the sky.

Love forever,

Micky "Your Flyboy"

Cynthia is survived by her husband Michael McPhee, One daughter Jessica Hancock of Cherokee and son in law Howard C. Wall. Two brothers Randall Jones of Cleburne and James Jones of Houston. Mother in law Margaret McPhee of El Paso, brother in law Robert McPhee of El Paso, Sister in law Marie and husband Ray Adams of El Paso. “ Missing this beautiful lady so much - so many good/great times and laughter together - here in Guam playing spades and having a cold one (or two or six), enjoying the beach house that Cindy and Mick loved so much, or hanging out at the ranch in Cherokee. There are so many good memories, warm time together, and above all else the love of true friendship. So few times in our lives do we make a true forever friend, and Cindy is one of them. We will see you soon enough, and we love more than all the stars in the sky. You are one of them now. All of our Love 💕 ... Tim, Marife, and Isabella
