“Wow, David. out of all the people whom I have seen by googling their name not once did I ever expect this. I've only had 2 best friends in my entire life and in 1989 you became that first friend. I will forever remember the trip to Sonora Caverns, Lake Buchannan and still remember your mom telling me the right pronunciation. All those trips we made in just 4 years seem as if it took an entire lifetime when it was actually a lifetime ago. You'll always be the guy who made me love Madonna 24/7/365 and forever remain the best friend I ever had. Love Drew

“ I remember when you introduced me to Donna Summer!! (her music) and you told me all about her and we listened to different songs....then, one day you played a new release song and you were asking me to guess who the artist was....and the song played and I was listening and I was focused on the artists voice and you were sitting in anticipation, smiling and waiting and waiting and then I gave you my guess "Donna Summer"! and your eyes lit up and you smiled so big and it was like we had won a prize! And we had, we had already won the prize of getting to know each other and you sharing your love of music with someone who was genuinely interested.....I will always remember you, your smile and your laugh.

“ I remember skipping school and going to San Angelo Mall when Madonna's song/album "Like a Prayer" first debuted, when the song first played ever on the radio we sat in the parking lot listening to the words and appreciating the music I remember you writing me letters (i still have them :) when you were going to school in Alvin telling me about your day and living on ramen noodles and crackers... I remember first meeting you when I was in your Mom's 4H Foods & Nutrition class....and I will always remember you, your smile and your laugh!
