“ Debbie was a very special friend and part of some of my fondest memories. Oh the laughter we shared! The Craft Family and the McMurry family spent many enjoyable hours together at church, camping, and just being together. Mother considered Betty her best friend and I had 4 dear girlfriends in the "Crafties". My heart, thoughts and prayers are with and have been with you all. Please know that it is only unfortunate circumstance that prevents me from being with you today. While I do not know Ronnie, Debbie was the happiest I have known her since she has been married to him. I know she loved her family and was a proud mother and grandmother. Now I see her with Betty and Lee and Old Pop and all of them are laughing and talking and praising God together. May you come to be comforted by HIS presence and the loving memories you have of our sweet Debbie. God bless you all and much love to you from Mom, me, Seth and Rachel.
