So very sorry due to surgery I was not able to attend the services of a beautiful soul, her smile was always present and u knew she was loved so very much not just by her sons and daughter but by many many nephews and nieces, her church family as well. She loved dancing with her husband and silly as it may sound , I feel sad I will never see them on the dance floor but she dancing to Jesus now in a beautiful place called heaven . My condolences to her children , be consoled with the fact she is no longer suffering but very very set free . She will be mightly missed by her husband so I will keep him in my prayers .
