

Elizabeth Ann Scott

August 3, 1948 - July 5, 2020

Elizabeth Ann Scott, AKA Ann Scott, 71, of Llano, Texas, passed away on Sunday, July 5, 2020, in Llano, Texas. She was born in Midland, Texas, to John Harold and Sara Elizabeth (Kuykendall) Scott on August 3, 1948. She was a longtime resident of Llano, Texas, and previously of Tow, Texas. She graduated from Uvalde High School in Uvalde, Texas. Ann, along with her parents, ran the Scott's Fishing Camp on Lake Buchanan for nearly thirty years. Ann worked for many years in the surrounding area as a longtime home health care provider and took great pride in her work; she loved to read and play bingo and looked forward to visits with her family. Ann was a resident of Llano Nursing and Rehabilitation Center; she loved the staff there as if they were family. Ann was often visited by her brothers, sisters-in-law, nieces, and nephews. Ann is preceded in death by her parents, Sara Elizabeth and John Harold Scott, also longtime residents of Tow, Texas. Ann was a beloved sister, aunt, sister-in-law, and daughter with nieces, nephews, and extended family too numerous to mention. Ann came from a large family and is sister to previously deceased brother Travis Harold and wife Ruby Ann Scott of Uvalde, Texas, with four surviving children and their families. Ann is survived by five brothers including; W.A. and wife Janet Scott of Payson, Arizona with six children and their families; Frank Douglas Scott of Granite Shoals with five children and their families, Thomas Nathaniel and wife Ann Scott with four children and their families, and Vernon Clyde and JoAnn Scott with two children and their families.

Graveside service will be at 10:30 AM Saturday, July 11, 2020, at Tow Cemetery in Tow, Texas.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, her celebration of life will be at a later date to be announced.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Heritage Funeral Home of San Saba.
