

Eva Morgan

January 25, 1949 - July 7, 2023

Eva Mae Morgan, 74, of San Saba, TX passed away on July 7, 2023, shortly after being diagnosed with brain cancer.

Eva was born on January 25 th, 1949, to Daniel Turner and Mavis brown in San Saba, TX. She had 4 brothers and 2 sisters; Gerald Turner, Carrol Turner, Connie Turner, and Ricky Turner, Zoda Lawrence, and Margie Wagner.

Eva started her life at a young age, marrying Willie peel when she was only 13 years old. Together they had 4 children: Willie Gene Peel, Helen Gonzales, Sharon Dyer, and Barbara Adams. Eva and Willie divorced but remained good friends. At the age of around 28 Eva met her husband of 44 years and counting, James Coats Morgan, of Mississippi. Although they didn't have any children of their own together, they adopted 3 of Eva's grandchildren; Eric Morgan, Jamie Morgan, and Dustin Morgan all of San Saba. Always having a house full of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Eva was lovingly referred to as Nana. Eva was known to be somewhat of a firecracker or a spitfire, she didn't have much of a filter when she spoke. While she was not the kind of Nana who would sit around baking cookies for her grandchildren, she was the kind of Nana who would always have something to eat if you were hungry or knew what to do in a tough situation. She loved to read, especially old Western novels and she was an amazing cook. Often, she would sing or hum as she cooked or worked around the house doing household chores. Eva devoted her life to raising children, her own, her grandchildren, and even great-grandchildren.

Eva was preceded in death by her husband James Morgan, her brother Carol Turner, and sister Zoda Lawrence, son Willie Gene peel, and grandson Jeffrey Frank peel. She is survived by her brothers Connie Turner and Ricky Turner's sister Margie Wagner, daughters Helen Gonzales, Sharon Dyer, and Barbara Adam as well as numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren. She will be loved and missed by many.
