

Glenn Grumbles

June 30, 1943 - October 19, 2016

Glenn "Skeeter" Grumbles passed away on Wednesday, October 19, 2016 in San Antonio, Texas.

Skeeter was born on June 30, 1943 to Norman and Eddie Elmore Grumbles in San Saba, Texas. After High School he ranched and moved to Fort Worth and started his family. After 10 years he brought his family back to San Saba where Skeeter worked for Clyde Ware as a truck driver and then worked for Max Mahan for sometime. He later went to work for Amthor Contruction as a heavy equipment operator and worked with them for 40 years. He loved to work and was a hard worker. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and he loved to garden, as so many know, by the vegetables he sold to locals.

He is survived by 1 son: Glenn Grumbles, Jr. and wife, Deanna, of Harper, Texas. 2 daughters: Cheri Kelley and husband, Mike, of Sealy, Texas and Michelle Cole of Itasca, Texas. 1 step-son: Jody Eden and wife, Baylee, of Alvord, Texas; 3 sisters: Debbie Collier and husband, Wayne, of San Saba, Texas; Norma Goble and husband, Stanley, of Cross Plains, Texas and Mary Stock and husband, Barry, of Austin, Texas. 7 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and wife, Valda Grumbles.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Never Surrender Cancer Foundation of San Saba, P.O. Box 995, San Saba, Texas.

Tribute Wall

CA

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of skeeter. I remember listening to his fishing stories around some of the job sites growing up in San Saba. He will be missed. May he Rest In Peace.

Chris Amthor - October 21, 2016 at 09:26 PM

BV

“ Debbie, sorry for your loss. He and you look so much alike. May our loving God see you thru this. Betty

Betty. Vaughan - October 21, 2016 at 02:41 PM

KS

“ Sorry for your loss. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

Karen Shivener Skaggs - October 20, 2016 at 11:00 AM

LT

“ Sorry for your loss. May the Lord bring comfort as only he can to all of you.

Linda Terry - October 20, 2016 at 12:12 AM