“ My heart goes out to you all. Mr. and Mrs. Cisneroz have always been some of the kindest people that I have ever known. I used to carry their groceries out for them at the old Modern Way Grocery store which was always a pleasure since they were always so kind. I remember being invited into their home and was treated with the utmost kindness. Mr. Cisneroz was a special man with a special heart and he will be missed. God bless the entire Cisneroz family during this tough time.
