He was in the VMI class of 1944, but after his junior year his class joined World War II where he served in the Pacific theater. He completed his senior year after the war. He and his brother, Charles T. Lockwood, operated the Brownwood Dr. Pepper business until his retirement. Harold had a ranch in Brown County and greatly enjoyed his time there raising cattle and seeing his children and grandchildren enjoy the outdoors. He also enjoyed playing golf. He was active in Good Samaritan Ministries and in the Brownwood Kiwanis club where he served as the local district lieutenant governor. He prided himself as the most prolific seller of tickets to the annual Kiwanis pancake supper, an accomplishment that he took over from his father. Harold and Marguerite served their church, First United Methodist, as greeters for almost 50 years. Harold was active in many committees in the church and was one of many instrumental in the construction of the church facility at its current location. He was a kind, honest and faithful friend to many, and loved and cherished his family. He will be greatly missed.

The family extends their thanks and gratitude to the many kind and faithful caregivers who helped care for Harold, with special thanks to Esther Ochoa.

“ Patricia, Fred Charles and Margie, Our families have have been friends for decades. We spent so many happy hours together, especially when we all lived on Elizabeth Drive. I don't remember a time in my life without the Lockwood's. Harold's and Daddy's birthdays are a day apart and we always celebrated both. It's impossible to think of one of their birthdays without thinking of the other's. Daddy always wanted to beat Harold selling Kiwanis pancake tickets but, of course, he never did. Harold was the all time champ! He also wrote beautiful letters. We loved him. Marguerite, too. They were a perfect pair. Love to all of you. Pamela Holley

“ Patricia, Margie, and Fred: What a precious legacy of gentleness and love of God, family, and life itself your parents have left to you! (And indeed to all who knew them!) On the many occasions when I would see them either in your childhood home on Elizabeth Drive or out and about in the community, they were always gracious. They remembered my name and always asked about my family with genuine interest and care. I fondly remember having your mother’s special-cinnamon toast at breakfast following a sleep-over, and your dad telling Fred to sit up straight and to remove his elbows from the table. (Funny how such simple things come flooding back into my memory.) They are and always will be missed, but oh, how sweet it is to recall a lifetime of love and laughter they have given to you and to us all. Blessings to you in the days ahead until we meet again.
