“ I'm truly sorry for your family's loss. Coach Smith was my Teacher and Coach throughout Jr. and High School and he will be fondly remembered. Men of his Quality and Character are a rare and vanishing breed.

“ Curtis- You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Coach Smith played a huge roll for myself and many others that made us who we are today. I clearly remember those "licks" that would set me on fire and were well deserved. God Bless you and your Family.

“ He was my teacher at least twice and coach several times, and always encouraging us to reach our potential. I'm still in a small town (Mason) and can truly appreciate the impact that coaches and educators have on so many lives, as I know he did. May God bless and comfort your family during this time of loss, and may you know that he will be remembered and missed. Please stop by if you're ever through Mason. Sincerely, Thom

“ My handsome Uncle Lawrence, My heart is broken again! I will miss you dearly, but I am enjoying the thought that you are hugging Grandmother, Grandad, Uncle S.L. and Aunt Noble Lee, Uncle Jack and Aunt DeeBee, Billy Frank, and Uncle Jim Bob, Brook and Geri, and all those that we love and miss so much. Hug Grandmother real hard for me and tell her I love having her in my dreams!
