

Irene Clara Wuensche

February 11, 1921 - March 8, 2013

Irene (Kieschnick) Wuensche, 92, of Brady, Texas and formerly of San Angelo, passed away Friday, March 8, 2013, in Brady. Visitation will be Wednesday, March 13, 2013, from 2-3 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church in San Angelo, with services immediately following at 3:00 p.m. Interment will be at Lawnhaven Memorial Garden in San Angelo.

Irene was born on February 11, 1921, in Vernon, Texas, to Arthur Kieschnick and Lydia (Hildebrandt) Kieschnick. She married Albert Herman Wuensche on January 1, 1941, in Wilson, Texas. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in San Angelo, Texas.

Irene's faith was a very important part of her life and she took the role of Pastor's wife to heart. She was a supporting force in Albert's 35-year career as Pastor in such places as South Dakota and Michigan; and, several towns in Texas; Hamilton, Ballinger, Kingsville, Menard and Eden.

Irene was very involved with the Lutheran Women's Missionary League and always took time to visit with and care for the sick. She was also a long-time Sunday School teacher, a talented folk art painter, and enjoyed gardening and cooking.

Irene was preceded in death by; her parents; her husband Albert; one daughter; Susan Elaine Slay; and one son-in-law; Fred Slay.

Survivors include: two sisters; Mildred Talkmitt of Slaton, Texas and Agnes Wuensche of Wilson, Texas; two sisters-in-law; Francis Holden, and husband Doug, of Colleyville, Texas and Leona Wied of Wilson, Texas; numerous nieces and nephews.