“ Isabelle was the most kind and caring person who made such a positive impact on me as a young boy. I always considered her family as did my mother Jean Miller and my sister Jeanne. We loved her and rejoice in the long, happy life she lived.

“ Sending my sincere condolences to Isabelle's family from California.

I remember meeting her in the early seventies and found that her son Adolph looked so much like her, even in personality. At that time, we reached out to her and her family two other children, Dorothy and Amadeio along with her sisters, brothers, and parents. I hope that her family finds comfort in all good memories of her and perhaps can share them on this site. She was my children's grandmother and sadly, they did not get to know. May she rest in peace.
