

James Emanuel Madison

April 30, 1927 - June 18, 2015

James E. Madison, 88, passed away on Thursday, June 18, 2015 in San Saba, Texas.

James was born in San Saba, Texas on April 30, 1927 to John and Ellen Madison. He served in WWII. After returning home he married Patricia Ann Brice in 1949 in Goldthwaite, Texas. Together they had 4 children. James worked for Amoco Pipeline starting in Denver City, Texas and later being transferred to Big Lake, Texas. He worked Amoco for over 30 years and retired when he was 63 years old. James loved gardening, fishing, hunting and was very well known for his picante sauce in the family. He loved food and love to feed everybody, he loved his family and most of all he just loved life.

James is survived by 2 daughters: Jamie Madison of Somerville, Texas and Martha Martin and husband, Bois (Tex), of Lindsey, Ok; 3 sisters: Bertha Mae Yarbrough of Dallas, Texas, Novalene (Dinky) Reeves of San Saba, Texas and Leatrice Greene of Midland, Texas; 3 grandsons: John Mendoza and wife, MaryQueen, of Houston, Texas, Colby Martin of Lindsey, Ok and Charles Judd of Corpus Christi, Texas; 1 granddaughter: Shandi Horton of Lindsey, Ok; 1 great-granddaughter: M'Kayla Henderson. Numerous nieces and nephews He is preceded in death by his wife, Patricia, parents, 2 sons: Philip Madison and Marcus Madison, 3 brothers and 1 sister.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to the American Diabetes Association.

Tribute Wall

“ We are very sorry for your loss. It was our privilege to know him through many conversations that included all kinds of topics. Your dad was a very kind and caring person. His love of gardening and conversation was shared with so many. May he rest in peace with His Savior. God Bless.

Larry & Donna Isom - June 20, 2015 at 01:01 PM