“ I miss you dearly and know in my heart that you are at peace. I've learned that the hardest part of living is having to say goodbye to someone you love. I will forever miss you, miss your smile and your corny jokes. Today will always be your day and a day that will not be one that is overshadowed by worldly problems.

“ Today is a solemn day in history. The dear Lord chose this day for you as we all reflect to never forget. You were put on this earth to make a difference and you sure did! I read a poem, here it is:
“When I die give what’s left of me away to children and old men that wait to die. And if you need to cry, cry for your brother walking the street beside you. And when you need me, put your arm around anyone and give them what you need to give me. I want to leave you something, something better than words or sounds. Look for me in the people I’ve known or loved, and if you cannot give me away, at least let me live on in your eyes and not on your mind. You can love me most by letting hands touch hands, by letting bodies touch bodies and by letting go of children that need to be free. Love doesn’t die, people do. So when all that’s left of me is love, give me way.” Missing you.....
