“ Aunt Jewel, you will be missed and was loved very much. You always had that chuckle and big grin on your face that was priceless! You would come to my rescue when we would go to Granny's. Larry Wayne, Terry Don, and Bobby being the "brats" they were knew I was scared to death of cats. They would throw baby kittens on me to watch and listen to me scream. Here would come Aunt Jewel to get it off of me and take me in her arms and comfort me and assure me she would spank them if they did it again. I would be "safe" until the next time. lol She still had loving words for me anytime I saw her. She was the last of our "Lee" family, she came from a remarkable family that some people will never get a chance of having. Thank you for being you, and again love you always.

“ Our Aunt Jewel,
Was a gem of a person; according to the dictionary the definition of Gem states; A precious stone, when cut and polished it is a "Jewel". She was one of the most smartest and most talented individuals I have ever know. Always a smile for everyone and could make you laugh no matter.
She has shown not only courage, wisdom and forgiveness, but true love her whole life.
When I think of perfection, I think how God created our Aunt Jewel!
She has endured more heartache than most could handle; but still stood by her faith and forgiving heart.
She always was and always will be an inspiration to me.....
Until we meet again Aunt Jewel, I love you,
Debbie Anne
