

Jimmy Don Edmondson

November 7, 1958 - August 26, 2025

Jimmy Don Grayson was born Nov. 7th 1958 in Abilene to Jimmy and Ruthie Walker-Grayson. Born to a family road construction workers he moved often. Settling in San Saba in high school years after his father's passing, Ruthie remarried to Charlie Edmondson and Jimmy was adopted in 1976 in his senior year of school. He played sports and was in band. His boss Edward Doss Jones Jr. became his father in law and his high school sweetheart Karen Rene Jones became his wife. Jimmy joined the United States Air Force and had one son born abroad while stationed in England, Donnie Ray. After a 20 year career Jimmy set sights to his goal at graduation from high school to become a math teacher. After getting a bachelor's degree in science of mathematics he taught in Weatherford before moving to Sand Springs and teaching at Coahoma Junior High. He was very involved by helping in sports and running a UIL program for mathematics, driving a bus, and even announcing at games. He eventually moved over to the Big Spring High School and completed a second career. He found a church home at My Redeemer Church where he became an elder and teacher to more. His wife Karen passed Oct. 25th of 2024. Survived by his mother Ruthie Rainey and his brother Randy Grayson and sister Ruth Ann Splan. He leaves his son Donnie and his grandchildren Clayton and Kaelob Stewart and Jordan and Cadence Edmondson.
