

Jo Ann Campuzano

September 5, 1968 - June 12, 2020

Jo Ann Campuzano

On Friday, June 12, 2020, Jo Ann Henry Campuzano, wife, sister, and loving mother, went to her heavenly home at the age of 51.

Jo Ann was born September 5, 1968 in Grand Prairie, Texas to Florence and John Henry Sr. She was a loving Mother to her son; Juan and daughter; Alicia. She and Miguel Campuzano married on September 5, 1999 in Marble Falls, Texas. Jo Ann attended high school in San Saba. She pursued a career as a Certified Nursing Assistant, a reflection of her compassionate nature. Her clients adored her fun-loving personality and they often became like family to her.

Jo Ann loved her family and cherished every moment she spent with them. She was known for her endearing smile, youthful heart, and quick sense of humor. Since Jo Ann was a child, she had a love for dogs. She had many over the years but especially loved her chihuahua "Mamas". She was also an avid music fan and took pride in her daughter and granddaughters beautiful voices. Unbeknownst to others she was also a fashion icon. Jo Ann had a way of making anything look good, and we are almost certain she invented the selfie.

Jo Ann was preceded in death by her father; John, mother; Florence and baby brother; Michael. She is survived by her husband; Miguel, her son; Juan Torres and wife Erica, her daughter; Alicia Torres, her grandchildren; Magdelane, Jazmyn, Samuel and Cecilia, her brothers; John Henry Jr. and wife Jennifer, David Henry, Robert Henry and wife Trisha, Gabriel Henry and wife Chantee, sister; Lupe Henry and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Visitation will be held from 5-8 PM on Wednesday June 17, 2020 at Heritage Funeral Home in San Saba, Texas. A celebration of life will be held at 11:00 AM Thursday, June 18, 2020 at the funeral home followed by interment at San Saba City Cemetery.

“ My mom was a beautiful woman both inside and out. She had such a big heart, always trying to help others as best she could. My mom always loved me unconditionally which helped me to make it though life and pursue my dreams. I already miss you so much mom, but I know you are in heaven watching over me and our family. I love you to the moon and back mama. I will see you again ❤️
