Jose was a lifelong resident of San Saba County, attending San Saba ISD where he later graduated from. Jose began his career in Goldthwaite as a welder at Metal Master soon after graduation. He met and married his wife Florencia Coronado in San Saba, Texas on November 27, 1961, they were happily married for 61 years. Jose and Florencia had three children, Jose Antonio Jr., Jane, and Roseann. Becoming a very accomplished welder, he was able to teach this trade to his son and nephews. He also loved to cook and bar-b-que, his pecan candy and birthday omelets were lovingly enjoyed by his family.
