“ I first met Kass when I went on to work at Mexico City. She thought I was a “lost little boy” as she would say 🤪 we often worked together most the time and MAN!let me tell you she was crazy mean goofy charismatic and we all know loud too lol we would always be playing around at work me her and angel always messing around with each other we would pretend to trip each other 🤪 and she would always loudly say staaaaappppaaaahhh dooonnttaaaa 🤪💔 she would always punching me and hitting me leaving me scratches and bruises lmao omg everytime I said yo mamma I knew it was go time I had to run for my life if not she would beat me up 💀💔🤪 or when we would spend our change to buy things from the toy machines I have a whole coloring box full of those things that now bring back so many good memories ☐ thank you for all the memories my friend. You will be truly truly missed 🙏😭 it's not a goodbye it's a see you later❤️

“ I first met Cassandra the day she came and applied at McDonald's. She had such a bubbly personality of course I had to hire her . Through the years we became good friends . We had a few Christmas together and birthdays. They are so many memories between us . Enchanted rock , six flags, tubing and many other get together. We all had a great group of friends. I will forever cherish those moments. She let me be a part of her daughter's life and I loved both of them very much . Cassandra will never be forgotten. Through her kind heart , big laughter, her love for her family. . She was definitely one of a kind . Rest in peace my friend . One day we will meet again. 🙏❤️😊
