“To the Land Family: I'm very sorry to read of the loss of your loved one. During times like these it's all too easy to feel helpless and without hope. When my family and I experience tragedy of this sort we often turn to the scriptures for endurance. Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4 speaks of a time when death will be a thing of the past and our loved ones will be reunited with us. Continue to beg God for endurance until that time comes.

“ *My friend Heather,
I am very sorry for your loss. No matter how prepared we seem for our loved ones end, nothing prepares us for the pain when the end actually comes. However, let your memories give you comfort and knowing they are at peace lighten your burden. Although they are no longer with us on earth, they are never truly gone for they live in our hearts and in our memories. I am here if you need me. God Bless.*
