“ I never met Mr. Hight but I know his sons, John and Jackie,,, The quality of a man's children is the brightest and truest reflection of a father, to have two sons of the quality Leonard Hight raised, shows him to have been an outstanding man of the highest regard,,,the world is a much better place for having Leonard Hight in it, and thank God for having shared him with the world,,,,

“ At times I would build Uncle Leonard and Aunt Alene a cake and take it to them. Of course they were so proud and would wash up my dish and hang it on my gate. I told Uncle Leonard you don't have to do that, I'll pick it up later. He told me no, if I give it back maybe you'll bake me another one. I had some great talks and visits with them. I can just imagine what's going on in Heaven right now. I can hear the Good Lord saying, "where is all that laughing coming from".
