“ Ms Sue was our neighbor in Brady for 7 years before she moved to the center in Eden. She loved to be visited, especially when I had the kids with me. She would brag about her grandchildren and share memories of life with Kelly. Her little dog cricket wouldn't let us get a word in sometimes, he was her protector whether she needed it or not (she didn't - she was a tough Texan). Sue loved that dog so much. She always came out to wave when she saw me pushing a stroller down the street and would spend a while on the porch in the evenings. When we brought her a meal, she would always return the dish with something for us - even if it was a handful of candy for the kids. She came to our church for several plays and productions to support the kids. We enjoyed having her as a grandparent figure and will cherish the memories of her waving to us from her porch. She had been ready to leave this world and reunite with her husband for a long time now, so we rejoice in her being called home.
