

Manuela Deanda

June 17, 1926 - January 23, 2015

Manuela "Minnie" DeAnda passed away peacefully on Saturday, January 24th, 2015. Minnie was born June 17, 1926 to Daniel and Maria (Albiar) Hernandez in Coleman, Texas. She married Rudy DeAnda June 20th 1953, in Menard, Texas.

She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She was a Guadalupana and member of the Catholic Church for many years. Minnie owned and operated the Dairy Mart in Menard for 22 years. Her favorite hobby was to grow African Violets. Minnie will be remembered by her family and many friends as a woman of generosity, great love, and graciousness. Minnie lived a long life marked by a generous spirit, fairness to all, and loving kindness extended to her many friends and family. She became a mother to so many because she loved to take care of others. Minnie will be missed by so many people whose lives were touched by her loving compassion.

Survivors include her husband Rudy DeAnda, of Menard, one daughter Diane DeAnda of San Angelo, Texas, son Danny DeAnda and wife Amanda also of San Angelo; daughter-in-law Margaret DeAnda, daughter-in-law Jo Ann DeAnda; grandchildren; Laura Lee DeAnda, Jamie DeAnda and wife Davina, Carissa DeAnda, Lacey DeAnda, Rudy Cooper DeAnda, great-grandchildren; Victoria Fischer, Kolby McSherry, Taylor and Katherine Fishcer, Olivia DeAnda Canon DeAnda, Gracen DeAnda, Hali Marie Gooding, Viviana Padilla.

Minnie is preceded in death by her parents, one brother Henry Hernandez, one sister Felipa Hernandez, and her son Frank DeAnda.

The family would like to say a special thank you to the Menard Manor for all the loving care and support they have given Minnie and Rudy.

Family desires memorials be made to Sacred Heart Catholic Church or Charity of choice
