

Margie Estella Jackson

September 3, 1926 - January 23, 2014

Margie Estella (Everhart) Jackson, 87, of San Angelo, and formerly of Brady, passed away on Thursday, January 23, 2014 in San Angelo. Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, January 29, 2014, at Rest Haven Cemetery in Brady.

Margie was born on September 3, 1926, in Brady, Texas, to Bill Everhart and Lydia (Middleton) Everhart. She married James H. Jackson in 1942 in Brady and lived in Brady until moving to San Angelo in 2001.

Margie was a people person and enjoyed visiting with friends and family. Over the years, she had worked as a dental assistant and also worked for the Brady Independent School District. She was an excellent cook and also enjoyed walking. She was known for her routine of walking two miles at the high school track and, when she had to move into the nursing home, still managed to get a mile of walking in even there.

Margie was preceded in death by; parents; husband, James H. Jackson; and son, Jimmy Wade Jackson.

Survivors include; son; Billy Jackson of San Angelo; two sisters; Rosalie Eaton and Mary Lohse, both of San Angelo; brother; J.D. Everhart of San Angelo; grandson; James Edward Jackson; three great-grandchildren; brother-in-law, Billy Jackson of Brady; numerous nieces and nephews.