“ It seems like Mary and Billy were always in my life. Teena and I talked about it but neither of us knew how our parents met. As young kids our parents would play dominos and we would get into mischief. Maybe I should say, I got into mischief and they would try to rescue me. The guacamole incident. Mary and Billy let Mike and me live in their "trailer park" when we were first married Mary would keep Mom posted as I was too embarrassed to call Mom. We ran from one end of that trailer to the other. You have been there my entire life precious woman, my heart breaks that I can no longer talk to you or kiss you goodbye. Thank you for being such an intricate part of my life. To the moon and back my sweet Mary.

“ This sweet lady, helped mold me in the retail business. We worked at Gibson's in the 70's. She fun and witty to work with. I grew up down the street from her trailer park. I visited the retirement home, Rest In Peace Mary!! With love & Prayers to her Family, Mary McBee
