“ Out of all the memories we’ve shared in this lifetime together, I’ll never forget the first time you let me pick out a toy - a BOY toy. Not a Barbie, not a baby doll - a HOT WHEEL. I’ll never forget the way it made me feel inside and how happy you were when you saw my face light up. Aunt Michelle, I’m going to miss you so much and I already do. I’m so sorry I didn’t stick around Texas a little more, but I promise when I get to Heaven we’ll sit down and talk about everything that’s happened. I love you so much. I hope you’re happy up there and I can’t wait to see you again.
