

Mildred Seward

February 2, 1927 - August 27, 2015

Mildred Seward, age 88 of Brady, Texas passed away Friday, August 28, 2015 in Brady.

The daughter of John Thomas and Effie Vetura (Jeffreys) Seward was born February 2, 1927 in Rochelle, Texas.

Mildred was a long time member of the First Baptist Church in Brady, where she was a very active Sunday School Teacher for over 50 years and a member of Mary Ballew Women's Bible Study Group. She enjoyed making day trips, and going anywhere, but she especially loved shopping for shoes. She was preceded in death by her parents; three brothers, Vernon Louis Seward, Marston Earl Seward and Edward Leo Seward; and a niece, Judy Christine Seward.

Survivors are her niece, Tommie Gwen Jones and husband Johnny of Brady, Texas; their sons, Matthew Todd Jones and wife Sherry of Sweetwater and Brad Franklin Jones and wife Meghan of Lockhart, Texas; step-nieces, Virginia Gay Davis of Glen Rose, Texas and Rickie Fay Owens of Brady, Texas. She is also survived by several other great-nieces and great-nephews and great-great-nieces, Mallory Michelle Jones of Discovery Bay, California and Sophia Elizabeth Jones of Lockhart, Texas..

Graveside service will be 10:00 A.M. Tuesday, September 1, 2015 at Rest Haven Cemetery in Brady with Dr. Kevin McDonald officiating.

Memorials may be made in Ms. Seward's name to Hospice of San Angelo or to Brady First Baptist Church.

Please view Ms. Seward's online memorial at www.heritagefuneraltx.com

Tribute Wall

CA

“ I just wanted to send forth my condolences to Tommie and the rest of the family. Mildred was such a lovely woman and it was great having had the chance to meet with her. I am very sorry for your loss.

Cie

C.T. Adams - September 11, 2015 at 05:34 PM

JP

“ Miss Mildred always left me with a smile. She was so sweet. She will be missed. You all have my deepest sympathy.

Jo Kitsmiller PA-C - August 31, 2015 at 09:07 AM