There are not enough words to describe how great Nancy was. She was a wonderful, loving mom. Her children were her priority. She did everything for them, they were her greatest life achievements. Nancy was a light in this world, the kindest, sweetest soul. She was the heart of the family. A great daughter and sister. She enjoyed being with friends, she loved to dance and enjoy life. She was an animal lover, she enjoyed going to the gym, shopping with her daughters, and living life to the fullest. She was a hard-working mom. She was patient and loving with all her family and anyone who knew her.

Through her kind heart and Christian faith, Nancy forgave easily and held no grudges. Nancy was a believer; her faith was in God and so is ours that we'll see her again. Nancy was absolutely excellent in everything she did.
