“ Dear Tish,
As you come upon the first milestone of your sons anniversary of his departure to be with the Lord. Let not your heart be troubled for he is in the presence of the one that we wish to be. Yet a little while, yet another season, our Father has already chosen the time when we all will be reunited with those that have just gone before us. They are but a ways up the road from us awaiting our arrival. God's love, peace, and grace abide in your hearts and your homes. God is true to his Word.

“ To the family of Nathan Cooke: you will ALWAYS be in my prayers and thoughts. May God give you the strength to get through days that seem much harder than others. I have known Letitia Cooke for many years, and she is a very special friend to me. I know God is with her, because she's had a lot to endure.....and although we don't understand why things happen like they do, God's got a plan for us all. So may all of you maintain your faith and have the strength you need to just keep carrying on.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of this beautiful young man. I know his mother much better than I knew Nathan and if love could be measured then Nathan knew how much he was cherished by his mom and the extended family.
