“ We have known Paul since he and his wife moved into the house across the street from us in the 1980's in Slidell, LA, where we quickly became more than friends, family, actually. Many good times were had with the Millers and another couple - crawfish boils, shrimp fries, bar-b-ques, duck hunting trips, snow skiing or just being together. The men earned nicknames based on ladies' comments to their jokes - Mean, Terrible and Disgusting. We were sad to see them leave our neighborhood and lost contact with them after Paul was sent to South America. Only a few years ago were we able to reconnect with him and visited him in Houston.

RIP our dear friend

“ So sad to hear, as I lost track of Paul over the years. Am grateful and have fond memories of Paul as my manager twice early in my career - a member of his team in two different states. He shared a passion for life, fun and work. I recall his great stories about working internationally and his time at LA Tech. RIP Paul.

“ Paul’s calm manner and radio voice calmed me down and brightened my day on many occasions. He had the ability to speak directly to me in a crowd. He was kind to everyone. It was as if he’d never met a stranger. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. I pray for the day tears of sorrow and loss are replaced by the laughter and joy of remembrance.

Peace,
Warren A.
