Tribute Wall

“ *Several childhood friends from the old Hutchins St neighborhood area just recently found out about Paula’s passing. We send our love and prayers to her family. I can recall her sweet childhood face even after all these years. My sister and I always felt so grown up when our mother would let us walk all the way down the block to play at the Wilson’s home. We never knew much about Paula through the years, but it appears she was very well taken care of— so thankful for that. Now she can rest in peace with no more battles to fight.
