

Pauline Garza Zapata Cisneroz Rodriguez

August 6, 1926 - December 5, 2020

Pauline Garza Zapata Cisneroz Rodriguez, 94, of San Saba, Texas, passed away on Saturday, December 5, 2020 in Harker Heights, Texas. She was born in Melvin, Texas to Eucivio and Christina (Zapata) Garza on August 6, 1926. She married Dabid Rodriguez in 1948 in San Saba, Texas.

Pauline was a very religious person who believed strongly in God and just as strongly in love of family. She raised her family to always respect everyone and she always practiced what she preached. She loved her grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren, of which she had an abundant number! A lot of her life she was always having to deal with adversity. The loss of one of her twins, Esther, at the young age of 3 months old, and first husband at his age of 26 that left her with three children to raise on her own and then the tragic loss of her first born, Jose Santos at his young age of 26. Then losing her daughter Florence also. Through all these tragedies she remained steadfast in her believe in God and the love of life to her last days. She was beloved by her entire family and all who knew her. Pauline had big heart and was the picture of what a perfect mom would be. She loved having family gatherings especially during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. But her favorite was celebrating her birthdays with family. Her concern was never about herself and always about family and friends. She would literally give you all of what she had if you asked her for it. And if she could not help you when you asked, it would tear her apart. Pauline was the definition of a daughter, a sister, a wife, a mother, a grandmother and a most wonderful person and friend one could have. And she was my mother. A letter from Connie Cisneroz, "After living in New York for over thirty years I finally came home to be spend time with my mom. These four years were the most precious years I got to spend with her. We enjoyed each other's time together. We would love to go cruising, listen to music, get a bite to eat, and go by the park where we played baseball. She would say come on Blue Jays, Mustangs, Angels, Hot Stuff (name of the baseball teams) get a home run. She loved to watch us play ball. These are some memories we will treasure forever. My mom is my heart and forever angel. I know she will continue to watch over us from heaven. She is home with our heavenly Father singing, dancing, and free of pain. Although you were my grandmother you were more my mom. I cannot express how much I will miss you but appreciate all you did for me and my siblings. I have been very blessed to know you and for the Lord to have put me in your caring hands. So that I may grow up to be the person with your morals. I was blessed to know you. You brought laughter, smiles and sunshine to every life you touched. Only a moment you stayed, but what an imprint your footsteps have left forever upon my heart. I love you mom until we see each other again."

Mrs. Rodriguez is preceded in death by her husband, Dabid Rodriguez, first husband, Jose Santos Cisneroz Jr., her parents, one son, Jose Santos Cisneroz Jr., two daughters, Esther Cisneroz and Florence C. Huerta, three grandchildren, Michael Henry, Joanna Henry and David Henry, great-great granddaughter, Paizlee Cisneroz, four siblings, Leonor Gomez, Lupe Zapata, Catarino Zapata and Frank Zapata, Jr.

Mrs. Rodriguez is survived by one son, Pedro Cisneroz and wife Esther of San Antonio, one half-brother, Jose Garza of Mexico, one half-sister, Lupe Macillas of Laredo, grandchildren, Connie Cisneroz, Corrina Dauzat, Joe Cisneroz, III, Jimmy R. Cisneroz, John Henry, Jr., Robert Henry, Melissa Cisneroz, and Christina Alvarez. She is also survived by twenty-one great-grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren.
