

Polly Frost

July 8, 1930 - January 17, 2015

Polly Frost, 84, of Lohn, Texas peacefully left this heavenly earth on Saturday, January 17th, in Brady, Texas.

Polly was born on July 8th, 1930 in Pecan Gap, Texas to Hollis and Jewell (Hornsby) Hill. She grew up near Tahoka, Texas and played basketball for and graduated from Tahoka High School. On November 12th, 1949 she married the love of her life and her sole mate, EW Frost, in Carlsbad, New Mexico. She and EW did not want to wait the required three day waiting period to get married in her home town of Tahoka, so they drove across state lines into New Mexico, and after a few trials and tribulations they were able to get married the same day. In 1957 she and EW moved to McCulloch County. Polly attended Beauty School in Brownwood where she became a licensed beautician. She had a love and passion for many things. Polly was a huge supporter of the Lohn Eagles and could often be seen at football and basketball games. She lovingly hand made and donated quilts to many Lohn Senior classes to be used as a class fundraiser. She loved to collect stones and rocks and she would often craft jewelry from her finds. Polly was an avid deer hunter and carried the nick name of "Dead Eye"; to say that she was a good shot was an understatement. She was a woman of faith and was a member of Lohn Baptist Church. Family was first and foremost in Polly's life, she loved her husband, children and grandchildren with all of her heart. Her smile, compassion, generosity, and devotion will be greatly missed by all who had the pleasure to know and love her.

Polly is preceded in death by her parents, Hollis and Jewell (Hornsby) Hill; and son, James Otis Frost.

Survivors include her husband, EW Frost of Lohn; daughter, Denise Matlock and husband Mark of College Station; two grand daughters, Kristen Matlock of Missouri City, MO and Stephanie Matlock of College Station; one brother, Paul Gene Hill of Brownwood; extended family; Tom Hunt and Nick Hunt Perez of Houston; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will include; Claude Lee Frost, Jr., Wesley Frost, Richard Bivens, Doug Hill, Scott Hill, and Victor Lohn. Honorary Pallbearers include; Curtis Wright, Gene Frost, and Barry Bivens and Quincy Ellis.

Family request that memorials be made in Polly's name to the Lohn Booster Club, or the Charity or Church of your choice.
