Reba Ann Hill passed away in June of 2023 in Brownwood, Texas. She was 90 years old.

Born in January of 1933 in Plainview, Texas, she met her future husband while attending Texas Tech University in Lubbock and was married in November of 1951.

She was active in Rocky Creek Baptist Church and before that, Lake Brownwood Methodist Church, often hosting fish fries at her lakefront home. She was rarely without a book and passed her love of reading to her children and grandchildren.

Reba loved waterfalls and birdfeeders and picnics on the lake.

She will be remembered by those who knew her as a kind person who loved the people around her. She will be greatly missed.
