Rhonda had an outgoing personality and loved spending time with family and friends. She had remained friends with some of her classmates since Kindergarten. She also loved to cook and would cook for all her family and friends when they came over.

Rhonda loved animals and had named every animal she ever had-goats and chickens included. She was always smiling and was tougher than nails; but was still her "Daddy's baby girl" and loved going fishing with him. She was a joy to be around and will be missed beyond words by all those who knew and loved her.
