

Rickie Fay Owens

September 2, 1948 - April 7, 2020

Rickie Fay Owens, 71, of Brady, Texas passed away on Tuesday, April 7, 2020, at Brady West Nursing Home after her courageous fight with a brain tumor. Rickie was born in Brady, Texas to Richard Fay Eller and Vera Christine Eller on September 2, 1948.

Rickie has lived in Brady most of her life. She worked as an LVN at Brady Nursing Home for years and then went on to work at Wal-Mart where she met and made numerous friends she loved dearly.

Rickie is preceded in death by her father Richard Fay Eller, her mother Vera Christine Morrison and a baby sister Baby Judy.

Rickie is survived by her four children, Samantha Osborn and husband Kenneth of Goldthwaite, Texas, Terresa Locklear and husband Dae of Voca/Rockport, Texas, Jeffery Luedecke and wife Michelle of Indian Creek, Jennifer Frost of Brady, Texas; two sisters, Gay Davis of Glen Rose, Texas and Tommie Jones and husband Johnny of Brady, Texas; fifteen grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

There will be a small private grave side service for family due to the current health situation.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Heritage Funeral Home of Brady.

“ Ricki was a second mom to me. She would have whipped me just like my real did. And I respected her for that. I spent as many nights at her house growing up as I did my own. Thanks for the memories. You will be missed. ”
