

Rowena Laverne Davis

March 13, 1930 - December 29, 2012

Rowena Laverne (Clevenger) Davis, 82, of Brady, Texas, passed away Saturday, December 29, 2012, in Brady. Visitation will be from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 1, 2013, at Heritage Funeral Home in Brady. Graveside services will be held at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 2, 2013, at Eldorado Cemetery in Eldorado, Texas.

Rowena was born on March 13, 1930, in Brady, Texas to Chester Burleson Clevenger and Eula Mae (Word) Clevenger. She married Marshall Davis in 1948, in Fredonia, Texas. She was a member of the Sunset Ridge Church of Christ.

Rowena was a very talented artist and enjoyed teaching art classes at Bee County College for some time. She also enjoyed sewing and was an excellent cook; having cooked many large meals for dinners in service with her husband who was a minister.

Rowena was preceded in death by; her parents and her husband.

Survivors include: two sons; Gerald Davis, and wife Wanda, of Mason; and Eddie Davis of South Texas; three daughters; Rena Michelle Cabla, and husband Gene, of Portland, Tx; Dahlia Cade, and husband Ron, of Ft Worth, Tx; and Marsha Kay Brown, and husband Scott, of Hurst, Tx; three sisters; Alberta Elliott; Yvonne Lilly, and husband J.F.; and Sue Davenport, and husband Kelly, all of Brady; 8 grandchildren; Cindy Mills, and husband Saylor, Ed Davis, and wife Rachael, Crystal Cabla, Cara Cabla, Brandon Cabla, Lea Brown, Brian Cade and Gary Cade; several great grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Please accept my sympathy. I hope that many years of memories will take you through the coming days. I am Ron Cade's sister. ”

Ginger Cade Daniel - January 01, 2013 at 02:20 PM